TUESDAY 22ND JUNE 2021

10AM- WORKSHOP COMMENCES

3.00PM - WORKSHOP ENDS

Skills and knowledge relevant to Diversional and Recreation Therapy. Essential information for your continued professional development in a 1-day DRTA workshop - this jam-packed program includes:

Aged Care Standards and their Application! From the perspective of the Leisure and Lifestyle team- What the Aged Care Quality and Safety Commission wants you to know to pass your accreditation.

The Aged Care Quality and Safety Commission's Accreditation Standards impact the services and activities that you provide. This workshop explores how they impact your programs, documentation, and outcomes and how the role of the Leisure and Lifestyle teams assists to meet the requirements and the expectations of the 8 Quality Standards as outlines through the Commission's Guidelines.

This full-day workshop, facilitated by DRTA National Education Coordinator Stephania Bejma, offers insights into specialising and adapting your assessments, activities, and programs to the Aged Care Accreditation Standards in line with the Diversional and Recreation Therapy best practice applications and what your Leisure and Lifestyle teams need to be addressing to achieve accreditation.

This workshop includes a practical exploration of the standards based on the commission's outcomes and expectations; Online group activities enabling the sharing of ideas, and networking opportunities.

A virtual learning opportunity including handouts of Activities via DRTA Takeaway CAFE's-Creative Activities for Everyone AND More.... With opportunities to network, exchange ideas and join Diversional and Recreation Therapy Australia! DRTA members will receive 6 PD points for attending this virtual workshop live on the day.
