

Melbourne-Coburg Workshop

Tuesday 22nd May 2018

Skills and knowledge relevant to Diversional and Recreation Therapy. Essential information for your continued professional development in a 1 day DRTA workshop -jam-packed programme includes:

- Mental health and social isolation- the impact of being isolated - social, physical and emotional.
- Cultural Inclusivity- what you need to consider in meeting the needs of a diverse community.
- Facilitating Human Nature Connections- a talk by Humanscape on therapeutic principles in gardening.
- Adaptive equipment and technologies- find out about the latest things to enhance your resident or clients experiences.
- Conflict resolution- things to say and do when confronted by conflict- hints for at work and at home.
- Your Life Story and Your Life Wishes - find out about these innovative and practical tools designed to kick-start conversations - essential for families, carers and professionals.

And More....

AND the DRTA initiative that gives an opportunity to gain new activity ideas to “take away”-the DRTA Takeaway Cafe. Contact Steph stephania@diversionaltherapy.org.au if you have an activity idea to share (earn 10 extra DRTA Professional Development points – don’t miss out!).
