About Silver Memories

Silver Memories is a 24 hour a day nostalgia radio station for the aged started in 2007 in Brisbane to address social isolation, depression and the effects of dementia through the broadcast of age appropriate music and entertainment.

Silver Memories does not have advertisements or news broadcasts. The announcers are mostly retired people with a passion for sharing their memories and the music of the past.

Silver Memories is transmitted to aged care homes across Australia via satellite.

Silver Memories was a finalist in the International Dementia Awards.
